

GEORGE H. HERMANN STATUE

Title: George H. Hermann Statue

Artist: Edwards, Lonnie

Date: 1981

Type: Statue

Medium: Bronze

Location: Hermann Park

The bronze statue of George Hermann in the park that bears his name was created in 1981 by Lonnie Edwards. It stands on a large pedestal of pink granite. It was donated to the City of Houston by the Hermann Hospital Board of Trustees.

A Houston native, George H. Hermann was born in 1843. He acquired great wealth through several businesses and brought about the establishment of Hermann Park and Hermann Square, which is adjacent to Houston's 1939-era City Hall. Hermann Hospital, across the street from the park, is the result of a bequest in his will.
